AS 1288-2006 Accreditation Scheme

The Glass and Glazing Association of Australia has developed a Member AS1288 Accreditation Program for the industry so that members may become Accredited Glaziers. To become an Accredited Glazing Member, the member must meet the following criteria:

Requirements

- Be a financial Member of AGGA or the State Associations.
- Have staff pass the AS1288-2006 Competency Exam. (At least one staff member employed in your Company must be registered as a Competent Glazier, their Certificate of Competency lasts for 2 years or must be updated with the introduction of significant amendments to the Standard).
- Join the Accreditation program and pay the annual Accreditation fee $200
- Abide by the Associations Code of Ethics.
- Accreditation numbers are not transferable to another Company.
- If the Competent Glazier leaves your firm the Accredited Company has 3 months for their new staff member to pass the Competency Exam.
- Company members who resign from the Association or lose their membership for any reason, forfeit their Accreditation and will be excluded from the Accreditation list and safety glass labelling program.

Benefits

- Listed on the AGGA website as an Accredited Glazing Company.
- Able to display the Accredited Member sticker.
- Mailouts sent to various bodies eg Real Estate Agents - showing case law judgements against people who have not glazed to the AS1288 code. Included in this mailout is a list of all Victorian Accredited Glaziers.
- Show your firm is an A1288-2006 Accredited Glazing Company on your letterheads.
- Order and use, AGGA stickers for marking Glass.

Cost

- Company Accreditation annual fee $200
- Glass stickers, cost depending on order requirements, order forms will be forwarded to members upon reaching all criteria.

Summary

Following completion of the above program . Members will be issued with an Accredited Member Certificate
